

Dear producers and members,

The season has started, and we want to congratulate the producers that have sent in new harvest samples for CTC tastings the last month.

The CTC tastings is well underway, and we want to urge producers to send the tasting samples well in advance for assessment to avoid logistical complications.

The dates for the CTC tastings have been posted on the website, please familiarize yourself with this.

Please note the changes that has been made to the CTC procedure. Please ensure that you fully understand the procedure as well as the details on the application forms.

One of the changes are that we are still catering for Tank samples to be evaluated as a pre – screening. The final CTC seals will be released when final packaged product is presented, and all information submitted to SA Olive to align with compliance and traceability records.

Proof of payment on the CTC seals is also required before the CTC seals are released to a producer.

Best regards

Wendy
