

Dear members and producers,

SA Olive have decided to move the date of the Introduction to Olive course to the 15th May 2024. The Introduction course on olive, presented by Louise Rabie, covering basic knowledge, and understanding of this liquid gold. This is also an ideal opportunity for you to send employees that you feel could gain from attending this course.

There are limited tickets for this course available. If there is enough interest, we will be running a second session later this year.

This course is recommended for individuals pursuing a career in the olive industry at all levels, sales representatives, retailers, ambassadors, and beginner olive enthusiasts.

If you would like to have more information or register for the course, click the below link.
