

Dear Members,

Please join Wesgro at the Export Awareness & Networking Day – Saldanha Bay, taking place on 29 February 2024.

What to expect from this workshop?

Convening various business support organisations including Department of Economic Development and Tourism (DEDAT), The Department of Trade Industry and Competition (DTIC), South African Revenue Services (SARS), Small Enterprise Development Agency (SEDA), The Land & Agricultural Development Bank, National Empowerment Fund (NEF), Industrial Development Corporation (IDC) – each organisation will share their support programmes available aimed at assisting businesses with their financing efforts or the assistance offered with respect to exporting to various foreign markets.

Wesgro's export promotion team will also explain their assistance which includes global marketing and export advice; and sharing of best practice success stories.

Who should attend?

Businesses wanting to learn about exporting and those wanting to expand their export capabilities. Businesses that want to understand the financial assistance available to grow their businesses. The programme allows SMEs to interact with Wesgro and other key organizations and allows for the opportunity to network and connect with similar businesses in the region.
